

Awaken

Verse 1

Lying in a pool of blood
Not knowing what the hell did bring me here
Leafing through my memories
(But) there's nothing left to take away my fears

Pre-Chorus

A face is staring me through empty eyes
Cold rigid limbs - layed down - in all this red.

Verse 2

I realize that i'm alone
Erect myself, and tumble through this room
I'm scanning through the ambience
I forget about of ever being here

Pre-Chorus

But suddenly i hear some steps outside
An open window saves me to get hide

Chorus

Awaken - but still in a dream - of riddles and lies
Awaken - dazed and confused - unable to cry
